THE CENTER FOR STUDENT MISSIONS TO START SITE IN BOSTON

Dana Point, CA, December 15, 2011 – The Center for Student Missions (CSM) has announced that it will begin ministry in the city of Boston, MA during Spring 2012.

CSM was established in 1988 to connect service groups with urban ministry opportunities. These groups are able to volunteer with organizations that provide crucial social services to their surrounding communities.

“We are very excited to open our doors in the city of Boston!” says CSM’s President, Dan Reeve. “There are amazing ministries serving their neighbors in practical ways in this city. We are honored to begin partnering with these organizations and empower them as they continue to serve the ‘often-forgotten’ people of our cities.”

Boston will join CSM’s network of nine other cities throughout the United States that provide short-term urban ministry experiences – Chicago, Denver, Houston, Los Angeles, Nashville, New York City, Philadelphia, San Francisco Bay Area and Washington, DC.

To learn more how you can partner with CSM in Boston, please visit www.csm.org/boston.php or call 949-248-8200.

About The Center for Student Missions:
